

20 Family Themed Date Night Conversation Starters

What is one thing you are grateful your parents taught you?

What is one thing your family did growing up you want to do with our family?

What is one thing you learned from your parents you do not want to pass down to our kids?

Who is one person in your family that has passed away you wish you could share one more meal with?

What is one thing you loved about your home as a child?

What is one quality you possess you think would make you a great parent or does make you a great parent?

Which of your family members do you act like most?

What is one of your favorite general traditions your family does?

What is one of your favorite holiday traditions your family does?

Are there any traditions you want to create with our family that you did not do growing up?

What are three things you love about our family?

What did mealtimes look like in your family?

Who was your “favorite” person in your family growing up?

Which of your family members do you most look like?

Who is one person you really admire in your family?

What was your favorite trip you ever took with your family?

Did your family have a pet(s) growing up, and if not, do you wish you had?

How did/does your family handle conflict?

What does your perfect family day look like?

How did your parents talk about money/finances?

Want to experience more meaningful moments with your spouse?
Check out our Marriage Retreats. marriage.winshape.org/retreats